

Glory to Ukraine

Ukraina, Ukraina, Ukraina
Slawa Ukrayini, Slawa Herojam

Yeah, 70 years of peace after WW two,
Now the older generations are all facing deja Vu
A pretty little psycho tryna dump the world in terror
Buddy, gettin into conflict with the world was an error
Invade a free country and call it military mission
Cause if your name is Putin you don't seem to need permission
Vladimir your war pretty damn sick
But at least it seems to compensate your very tiny d

Glory to Ukraine, glory to the heroes
May you rise again, may you be released
Glory to Ukraine, glory to the heroes
May war come to an end, may you find new peace

(Während des Flötenzwischenspiels)

A pretty little psycho tryna dump the world in terror
Buddy, gettin into conflict with the world was an error
A pretty little psycho tryna dump the world in terror
Buddy, gettin into conflict with the world was an error

Dear Russia it's not you, it's him.
Now once again we're facing war and nobody can win.
Blyat Putain Putin, I don't know what he threw in,
Not a sane thought behind his grin
We're not letting you go through, to do just what you wanna do
You can't destroy the spirit of nation under your shoe
Not without impunity
Not fully, not for free
Not if this whole world stands with
U K R A I N E

Glory to Ukraine, glory to the heroes
May you rise again, may you be released
Glory to Ukraine, glory to the heroes
May war come to an end, may you find new peace

Ukraina, Ukraina, Ukraina
